

Safe Harbor Youth Program

The Safe Harbor Youth Program at the Minnesota Indian Women's Resource Center (MIWRC) is a supportive service program for youth ages 24 and under who have experienced sexual exploitation or are at risk of sexual exploitation.

You will be connected with a Youth Worker who can provide direct support and referral services.

Some examples of these services include:

- Basic needs assistance (food, shelter, etc.)
- Transportation assistance
- Job search assistance
- Culturally supportive services
- Information about group and community activities
- Referrals to other supportive programs

To get more information or make a referral, please contact Logan Tootle at 612-728-2020 or ltootle@miwrc.org.

Self-referrals accepted.

To find more resources or get help now please contact the Day One hotline at:
1-866-223-1111 (call) 612-399-9977 (text)

Learn more about Safe Harbor at <http://www.health.state.mn.us/injury/toopic/safeharbor/>.